CHARGE REGISTER, instructions for keeping (S.O.) 195/
REFUSED CHARGES, procedure re

The second sub paragraph of paragraph 2 of Force Ord 110/34 is cancelled and the following substituted:-

As a general rule charges under Section 249 of the ne Criminal Code may be refused; but with regard to charges u Section 250, as an assault "occasioning actual bodily harm' have serious results, it must be left to the discretion of Officer i/c of the station, taking into consideration the gravity of the injury and the circumstances of the assault, whether the complaint should be accepted. In a l l cases where knives are used, the charge m u s t be accepted.

When the complainant and the accused are of different religions or when from the circumstances of the case it is likely that a more serious offence may result if prompt action is not taken, the charge should be accepted. Subject however to this consideration, if the injured person does not require more than ten days medical treatment, the charge may be refused.

It must be clearly understood that all such cases whether accepted or refused must be registered.
